Dedication

I wrote this for all of the young of heart and all of those who love cats. This story started out as a small poem and is now a picture book.

There was a family of cats that were larger than what we know as house cat. They lived in what looked like a very large shoe far out in the woods.

One day while out taking a walk and enjoying the forest, they found a very young baby boy. That was me and they named me Kaboo.

They took good care of me.
They made sure that I was kept clean.
