I dedicate this picture book to the young of heart. It shows that even beings that are different in a lot of ways can still be the best of friends.

There was once a small squirrel named Munchie. As for squirrels, Munchie wasn't so different. He loved hunting for nuts and putting them away for the long winter months.

One day while hunting for nut, Munchie decided to collect the ones close to a small lake deep in the forest. One of the nuts he was holding got away and roller into the lake.

Just then something splashed him with water. After wiping his eyes he saw a fan tailed gold fish holding the nut out of the water toward him.

“Hi my name is Munchie,” He said out loud.

Just then Goldie spit the nut out onto the bank.

“Glad to meet you. My name is Goldie,” he answered

“How did you get out here?” Munchie asked.

“Oh I got
