Dedication

I created this little book for all of the young ones that need that little bit to help fall asleep.

Sweet Dreams Little One

Grandma had made sure Baby Bear was full and bath time was over, and now it was time for sleep. But Mom and Dad weren't home from work yet and baby bear really wanted a big loving hug from mom and dad. Tried as he did he just couldn't seem to fall asleep.

So he sat on the floor, all wrapped in his favorite blanket. He was all snugly and warm, waiting for sleep to come.

Laying on the floor with his feet on the wall didn't seem to get him any closer to sleep.

He tried and tried his best, but he just couldn't fall asleep.

Laying all propped up on pillows didn't seem to help, and changing positions didn't seem to help either.
